6 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

8 AMAZON.COM, INC.,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 PHILIP MOYER,

12 Defendant.

CASE NO. C19-1176RSM

MINUTE ORDER

13
14 The following MINUTE ORDER is made by direction of the Court, the Honorable
15 Ricardo S. Martinez, Chief United States District Judge:

16 On November 13, 2019, Defendant filed a letter seeking “clarification regarding the 17 Court’s October 24, 2019 Order Granting In Part Amazon’s Motion for Preliminary Injunction.”
18 Dkt. #73. Therein, Defendant specifies the difficulty faced in implementing the Court’s
19 requirement that Defendant not contact “any existing AWS customers.” As explained by 20 Defendant, there is no definitive list of “AWS customers” available to Defendant and the term
21 may be broader than understood by the Court. Plaintiff responded with its own letter taking the 22 position that Defendant’s request is improper and should be stricken as an untimely motion for
23 reconsideration or should be reworked and noted as a motion to provide Plaintiff with a full
24 opportunity to respond. Dkt. #74.

1 To aid the parties, the Court finds it appropriate that this matter be set for a telephone
2 conference with the Court. In advance of the telephone conference, the parties are directed to
3 meet and confer in good faith to discuss reasonable and workable proposals addressing the issue.
4 Any resulting proposals (whether joint or disputed) should be submitted to the Court one day in
5 advance of the scheduled telephone conference.

6 To schedule the telephone conference, counsel for the parties are directed to confer on
7 available dates and times and then coordinate with the Court's Deputy Clerk, Lowell Williams
8 and Laurie Cuaresma, by telephone at (206) 370-8521.

9 DATED this 18 day of November 2019.
